

Calix Infrastructure offers Eguana Solutions in the Benelux region

CALGARY, Alberta, June 28, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Eguana Technologies (TSX-V:EGT) (OTCQB:EGTYF) is pleased to introduce Brugge-based Calix Infrastructure as its distribution partner covering Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg and northern France. Calix Infrastructure offers a range of sustainable and renewable energy products to let their customers take control of their own energy through an extensive network of contractors in the Benelux region. The partnership was finalized at last week's ees/Intersolar conference in Munich, Germany.

"Nicolas and his team at Calix have built a reputation in the region for delivering cutting edge solutions with advanced capabilities and superior performance," said Brent Harris, Chief Technology Officer at Eguana Technologies. "We are excited to be able to confidently direct customers seeking Eguana's products to a leading supplier so well rooted in the region and look forward to building our customer base in the Benelux energy storage market together."

"Eguana's products are very well suited to the Benelux market," said Nicolas Bruynooghe, Managing Director at Calix Infrastructure. "There is no other product available in the European market that combines the power and flexibility of the Eguana Evolve, and our customers and contractors demand a scalable backup power solution that also supports advanced grid interactive functionality."
